The perfect Swing...

The key to winning at golf is: flexibility, optimum fitness, strength, balance and increased range of motion. Every Professional golfer is aware of this, and that's why they train on the MAXUVIBE®.

Using the MAXUVIBE® is an ideal way to warm-up and get ready for some serious action. In a relatively short time the MAXUVIBE® will help you increase flexibility, build strength and tone, perform dynamic stretching movements and gives you fantastic acceleration training. It can also help you improve your range of motion. You'll feel more flexible after you use the MAXUVIBE®.

For both the Professional and recreation golfers, the MAXUVIBE® will always give you the edge over your competitors.
